

Regulations for Donating and Receiving Donations for the Campaign Against Homophobia

CHAPTER I.

GENERAL PROVISIONS

Art. 1

The Campaign Against Homophobia is a public benefit organization, registered under the KRS number 0000111209, located at Aleje Jerozolimskie 99/40 in Warsaw (02-001), phone: +48 22 423 64 38, email: info@kph.org.pl.

Art. 2

The Campaign Against Homophobia pursues the following statutory objectives:

- A. changing laws that discriminate due to the sexual orientation and gender identity in the Polish legal system,
- B. promoting a social attitude of acceptance towards individuals, regardless of their sexual orientation and gender identity, and their families and loved ones,
- C. introducing provisions into Polish law institutionalizing relationships between individuals, regardless of their gender,
- D. increasing access to non-discriminatory healthcare services, especially concerning sexual orientation, gender identity, gender expression, and sexual characteristics, and improving the quality of such services,
- E. promoting health protection, particularly addiction prevention, spreading knowledge about safer sex, and sexually transmitted infections, HIV, and AIDS,
- F. increasing safety and freedom from discrimination, particularly based on sexual orientation, gender identity, and gender expression, in educational institutions, schools, higher education, and sports,
- G. improving the quality of education and access to reliable knowledge on the diversity of sexual orientations, gender identities, gender expressions, and sexual characteristics in educational institutions, schools, and higher education,
- H. educational impact on minors or supporting their resocialization process,
- I. introducing into Polish law provisions penalizing hate-motivated crimes and violence based on sexual orientation and gender identity, and improving the quality of their prosecution,
- J. increasing access to specialized assistance and support for victims of hate crimes and discrimination based on sexual orientation and gender identity, and improving its quality,
- K. developing a movement of allies, including parents, families, and loved ones,
- L. institutional development of the organization and increasing its operational efficiency,
- M. social welfare activities and supporting parents, families, parenting, youth, and seniors,
- N. providing free psychological, legal, sexological, and civil advice,
- O. spreading knowledge about children's rights, sexual, health, and reproductive rights, and human rights,
- P. working for civil liberties, democracy, European integration, and inter-society cooperation, strengthening civic and patriotic attitudes,

- Q. promoting and organizing volunteer work,
- R. collaborating with other NGOs in Poland and abroad,
- S. supporting democracy, civil rights, and the development of civil society,
- T. providing social assistance, including financial or material support, to individuals experiencing discrimination based on sexual orientation, gender identity, gender expression, or sex characteristics.

Art. 3

The Campaign Against Homophobia accepts donations, defined as voluntary contributions for the realization of the aforementioned statutory objectives.

CHAPTER II

DONATION TRANSFER AND CANCELLATION

Art. 4

One-time donations may be transferred in the following ways:

1. bank transfer,
2. postal transfer to the bank account,
3. via the website www.kph.org.pl through the Stripe system,
4. via PayPal system.

Art. 5

Recurring donations may be transferred in the following ways:

1. payment order established in the donor's individual electronic banking,
2. via the website www.kph.org.pl through the Stripe system,
3. via the PayU system.

Art. 6

The donor may designate the purpose of the donation from the objectives listed in Art. 2 of these regulations.

Art. 7

Donations already made may be canceled in the case specified in Art. 898 § 1 of the Civil Code.

Art. 8

Planned donations may be canceled without providing a reason.

Art. 9

To cancel planned, recurring donations made through Stripe or PayU on the website www.kph.org.pl as a payment order, the donor must contact the Campaign Against Homophobia via the email address provided at the time of registration, providing:

1. donor's name,
2. donation amount,
3. date of the last payment.

Art. 10

Processing the cancellation of the payment order may take up to 10 working days.

CHAPTER III

OBLIGATIONS OF THE CAMPAIGN AGAINST HOMOPHOBIA

Art. 11

The Campaign Against Homophobia shall spend the received donations according to the donor's expressed wishes through the selection of a specific purpose or program.

Art. 12

Donations not assigned by the donor to a specific purpose or program shall be considered donations for the realization of a statutory objective, which the Campaign Against Homophobia determines as needing funding at that moment.

Art. 13

The Campaign Against Homophobia is obliged to inform donors at least twice a year about the activities carried out thanks to their donations.

Art. 14

The provision of Art. 13 does not apply in the case mentioned in Art. 18.

CHAPTER IV

PROTECTION OF PERSONAL DATA

Art. 15

By providing personal data through the methods described in Art. 4 and Art. 5, the donor consents to their storage and processing by the Campaign Against Homophobia.

Art. 16

All donor data is stored and processed by the Campaign Against Homophobia in a secure manner and is not disclosed to private individuals or external entities.

Art. 17

Each donor has the right to access their personal data and to request its removal from the Campaign Against Homophobia's databases. These actions can be carried out by directly contacting the Campaign Against Homophobia.

Art. 18

The Campaign Against Homophobia reserves the right to contact donors electronically, by phone, or by traditional mail in order to:

- thank them for their donations,
- provide information about the expenditure of donations,
- send gifts from the organization,

- request the renewal of a donation,
- request an increase in the donation,
- make another inquiry or request for engagement,

unless the donor has explicitly declined any form of contact during the personal data form submission or in writing.